Conference details

The MedTech and Diagnostics Conference 2025: Connecting the Ecosystem is set to explore the future of diagnostics and healthcare delivery in the UK, spotlighting the nation's strengths in NHS clinical excellence, innovative R&D, and advanced wound care.

The agenda features keynote presentations on the next decade of MedTech, with deep dives into decentralisation, AI in pathology, multi-omics for chronic diseases and sustainable drug delivery.

This dynamic two-day event will unite 150 experts from academia, healthcare, biotech, pharma and government, offering a mix of invited talks, interactive panels and networking opportunities. Join us to learn from industry pioneers, share ideas and forge new connections within this rapidly advancing field.
